I understand the T3 Honor Academy is dedicated to helping me develop as a person and a player. I understand at times I will be challenged, asked to face tough questions and situations where growth is the goal. I understand the culture of the T3 Honor Academy will be one of loving others, using words to honor and build a healthy identity, active humility, quiet courage and speaking the truth in love. I understand I am part of building and creating this culture and in interactions with others I am responsible for the environment I create. I am committed to living and playing in a way that honors this culture. I am committed to helping grow a community centered in honoring others by always giving my absolute best for my growth and theirs.
